

Environment Awareness Club

The club is a group of concerned students committed to raising awareness about environmental issues and to instill a sense of responsibility for the environment.